POINTS OF PRIDE

Faculty, staff, and students are involved in service projects supporting our school's theme, "My Character Counts".

Older students buddy with younger students to read with them, help with classwork, and offer encouraging words.

We take pride in the arts as evidenced by our school's first school-based production of Aladdin, Jr.

Visit our Kindness Rock Garden where "one message at just the right time can change your entire day, outlook, and life".
