POINTS OF PRIDE

Our students are prepared for college with 93% of graduates enrolling in post-secondary education. Students consistently rank top in ACT scores, AP credit hours earned, and Dual Enrollment courses taken.

Strong parent and community support provide extensive opportunities for our school and students. Some of these include teacher mini-grants, Skipper Scholar Breakfast, talent show, and campus beautification.

Our business partnerships provide mentoring, internship opportunities, and support for extra-curricular activities.

Our competitive athletic program boasts state championships in multiple sports, and student-athletes receive scholarships and progress to collegiate and professional play.
